Ordinary to Extraordinary

150 stories as unique as the women who lived them

The stories in this book document real life experiences of members of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario (FWIO), as a project to celebrate Canada's 150th birthday. 150 stories were selected out of the 350 submissions.

Ordinary to Extraordinary relates life from a woman's point of view. The stories range from a single incident to a full life story; from ordinary life to tragic events; from the horrific to the humorous. There are stories of living as a child in another country, immigration to Canada from various countries, growing up in Ontario, meeting the love of their life, and the struggles of life – fires, floods, and tornadoes. Some stories recount the role of the Women's Institute (WI) in their lives; their pride of accomplishments and support for their community.
